Attorney for Defendant

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

JON KOONES

Docket No. 2:22-cv-06575-JMV-LDW

Plaintiff,

- against -

CERTIFICATION OF YOTAM
KEHATI IN SUPPORT OF THE MOTION

YOTAM KEHATI

Defendant.

----- x

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I, Yotam Kehati, declare under penalty of perjury that the following is true and correct to the best of my knowledge:

1. I am the Defendant in this action and make this certification in support of my motion for lack of subject matter jurisdiction.
2. While I currently rent an apartment in Manhattan, I am domiciled in New Jersey.
3. I grew up in Closter, New Jersey and my family home was 6 Westervelt Avenue in Closter. I reside in Closter, primarily, during the week and go to Manhattan for weekends.

4. My father died a few years ago, and my sister lives in Haworth, which borders Closter.

The family home is still held in the estate of my father. My mother lives in the area as well. I am very close with my family, and want to remain in close proximity with them.

5. Further, this home is one to which I have a deep emotional attachment. It is the one place that I know I can always go. It was my permanent home from my childhood, and I have never established a permanent place since that time.

6. My driver's license is at 6 Westervelt Avenue.

7. When I am between places, I return to 6 Westervelt Avenue.

8. The rental apartment in Manhattan is an apartment that I occupy, but is not my permanent home. I do not intend to remain there forever, and my driver's license and important mail are still sent to the house in Closter. I have had several rental apartments over the years, but my home in Closter is the place that I know that I can return to, and often do return to in between other apartments.

9. Rather, I like to be in Manhattan for weekends and other times when I am not working.

10. For these reasons, I continue to be domiciled in Closter, as I have never changed my domicile.

11. I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on January 23, 2023.
